BASIC PREP

Ready to use. Add to taste.

SUGGESTED USES

- Simply blend with water and sugar to taste to make a refreshingly sweet and tart lime beverage
- Add to a seasoning blend or marinade to incorporate fresh lime flavor into meat, seafood or vegetables
- Use in place of fresh lime juice in soup, sauce and dressing recipes
- Mix with sugar or salt and use to rim

RECIPE

Baked Chili Lime Sweet Potato Chips

- 2 large sweet potatoes, washed and dried
- 2 tablespoons vegetable oil
- 1 teaspoon chili powder
- 1 teaspoon Lime Juice Powder
- 1 teaspoon fine sea salt

Preheat oven to 400°F. Line a baking sheet with parchment paper.

Use a mandoline to slice sweet potatoes to desired thickness. Gently toss sweet potatoes with oil to coat, and spread on parchment-lined baking sheet.

Stir together chili powder, Lime Juice Powder and sea salt in a small bowl, and lightly sprinkle over sweet potato slices.

Bake sweet potatoes for approximately 20 to 25 minutes, flipping halfway through baking. Slices should be just beginning to brown. Check frequently to ensure smaller slices are not burning. Remove from oven and let cool completely before serving.

Makes 4 servings

Tangy Lime Juice Powder makes an ideal seasoning for sweet potato chips when teamed with chili powder and sea salt. These baked chips are a healthier alternative to the fried variety in a bag, and just as addictive.
