Suggested Uses

Rose water is used in Middle Eastern cuisine—especially in sweets such as nougat, raahat and baklava. It is used to give some types of Turkish delight their distinctive flavors. It is also added to tea, ice cream, cookies and other sweets in small quantities, and in the Arab world and India it is used to flavor milk and dairy-based dishes such as rice pudding. It is also a key ingredient in sweet drinks made from yogurt, sugar and various fruit juices. It can be mixed with milk, sugar and pink food coloring to make a sweet drink – a favorite in Singapore and Malaysia.

It is also used to flavor Marzipan, lemonade or other sweet drinks.
